About the Toronto Pro Supershow Pole and Aerial Hoop Competition 2018

We invite you to join the prestigious family of sponsors for the third annual TPSPAC in Toronto, Ontario on Saturday June 2nd and Sunday June 3rd at the Toronto Pro Supershow held inside the Metro Toronto Convention Centre!

An event as such typically attracts those in the dance and fitness communities as well as the general public who enjoy outstanding performances reminiscent of Cirque du Soleil. This tends to be an upper income, largely female audience of consumers, however male performers are now also entering this intense sporting activity. With our event being held at the Toronto Pro Supershow, our audience is multiplied 10 fold. We have over 94 competitors from across Canada already registered and we anticipate that number to rise once applications close April 1st. This year's event is also a qualifier for the 2019 Canadian Pole Fitness Championship where the Pro Division winner is automatically accepted to the prestigious Arnold's in Columbus, Ohio!

This will be our third annual event held during the Toronto Pro Supershow – Canada's largest fitness expo. Our organization, however, hosts annual regional and national competitions with this being our ninth year.

The Canadian Pole Fitness Championship is an exciting annual event featuring the best pole and aerial hoop performers from across Canada. This is a highly anticipated event as our audience is limitless as the convention itself draws tens of thousands attendees over the weekend. With 8 categories, two shows the convention and workshops surrounding this event we anticipate this year to draw an even larger crowd.

Last year we had 96 competitors. This year, we already have over 94 registered and there is still one month before the registration deadline. With the second year of the Aerial Hoop competition addition, we anticipate a large group of competitors with this equating to a spectacular show with a large audience from all over Canada.
